

31 January 1983

Organization and Mission - Field

DETACHMENT 3

This regulation prescribes the mission of Detachment 3, Foreign Technology Division (FTD), [REDACTED]

1. Mission. Detachment 3 provides scientific and technical intelligence (S&TI) support [REDACTED] Detachment 3 provides direct support to unified and Air Force component commanders to satisfy the S&TI requirements of operational units within their theater of operations.

[REDACTED]
prepares, trains, and maintains readiness to meet wartime mission responsibilities according to FTD War and Mobilization Plan and operational command plans; provides planning assistance, coordination and support [REDACTED] of FTD and other U.S. agencies engaged in intelligence support to operational commands.

2. Organization. Detachment 3 is directly subordinate to HQ FTD, and is accorded Directorate status.

3. Communications:

a. Continental United States (CONUS). Address all matters requiring command-level attention to the Commander (CC), FTD. Address substantive, functional mission-related and support activities to the appropriate HQ FTD Director. Analyst-to-analyst interface is encouraged to enhance information exchange. Communications with non-FTD CONUS agencies will be through FTD/CC or the relevant Director.

b. Intratheater. Detachment 3 is authorized direct communications with other intelligence organizations, [REDACTED] for the purpose of support to S&TI production, other theater elements to provide S&TI support, and organizations involved with FTD under existing formal agreements.

c. Tasking. HQ FTD support required by Detachment 3 to respond to operational command S&TI needs or to conduct other mission-related activities will be addressed to the appropriate FTD Director through the Production Programs Branch (FTD/XOFP), or directly to XOFP when unsure of relevant Directorate.

Supersedes FTDR 23-1, 4 Dec 81. (See signature page for summary of changes.)

No. of Printed Pages: 2

OPR: XO (Lt Col Benson)

Approved by: Col Watrous

Editor: MSgt Hendrix

Distribution: F; X:

HQ AFSC/CS.. ...1

d. Management Information. Status of ongoing activities and current actions will be provided, via monthly activities report, to FTD/CC with information copy to FTD/XOX (Detachment Affairs). XOX will monitor all communications and provide necessary support.

4. Responsibilities. Detachment 3 is directly responsible to HQ FTD for mission accomplishment. Detachment 3:

a. Plans, organizes, and develops a capability to provide timely, direct S&TI support to [REDACTED] Assist in identifying and focusing operational S&TI needs, develops and maintains a responsive support data base, and evaluates user satisfaction. Promotes the FTD mission, products, and available support services through direct and routine interface with operating elements.

b. Generates a data base and produces intelligence information reports on [REDACTED] via focus on worldwide S&TI information opportunities. Opportunities may include [REDACTED]

c. Develops and maintains a complementary mode of operations with the Air Force [REDACTED] agreements to ensure FTD S&TI [REDACTED] are satisfied. Provides technical direction, guidance, and interpretation of S&TI requirements to local [REDACTED]

d. Plans, prepares, and maintains capability to perform wartime mission in coordination with [REDACTED] wartime plans. Participates in theater and joint wartime exercises.

e. Supports [REDACTED] other U.S. agencies, and third party [REDACTED] to maintain effective S&TI technical [REDACTED] and data assessment.

f. Provides analytical support to HQ FTD elements as required and acts as theater focal point for exchange of technical information.

DAVID S. WATROUS, Colonel, USAF
Commander

WAYNE R. KLEIN, Major, USAF
Chief, Administration Division

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

Emphasizes S&TI support to operation elements; de-emphasizes collection.